JOINT MOTION TO STAY FURTHER PROCEEDINGS

COME NOW Defendants St. Louis County, Jack Webb, Lane Hollandsworth and Stephen Deen; and Plaintiff Lexington Insurance Company, and jointly move the Court to stay further proceedings in this case.

As the Court is aware, the parties to this case are cognizant that the direction of this case may vary considerably, dependent upon the decision of the Court on a post-judgment motion in a case styled Briscoe v. County of St. Louis, 4:2008cv01717(CEJ). It would further the interests of the parties, and of judicial economy, for the Court to order a stay of further proceedings until the Court in the said Briscoe v. County of St. Louis case has issued its decision on the post-judgment motion.

Accordingly, the above-named parties ask the Court to stay further proceedings in this case until an order has been made on the post-judgment motion in styled Briscoe v. County of St. Louis, 4:2008cv01717(CEJ).

Further, Defendants St. Louis County, Jack Webb, Lane Hollandsworth and Stephen Deen ask that they be granted until ten (10) days after the ending of the stay to file their responsive pleadings.
